PEER-REVIEWED ARTICLES

Women in Radiography Practice in Ghana: Motivating and Demotivating Factors
Samuel Anim-Sampong, Lawrence Arthur, Josephine Abena Nkansah, Berard Otene Boiwe ................................................. 337

Evaluating Mammographer Acceptance of MammoRisk Software
Jean Weigert, MD, Nancy Cavanaugh, Talong Jue ................................................................. 344

DIRECTED READING ARTICLES

Imaging Earthquake-related Injuries
Kevin R. Clark .......................................................................................................................... 351

DXA Imaging in Nontypical Populations
Dana M Black .......................................................................................................................... 371

COLUMNS

Guide for Authors
Citing References: The Big Picture ................................................................. 391
Bookshelf
Anatomy and Imaging ................................................................................. 394

JRCERT Update
Accreditation Standards Revision Process ................................................................. 396

In the Clinic
The Role of PET-CT in Radiation Therapy Planning ................................................. 399

Management Toolbox
Radiology Equipment Training Made Easy ......................................................... 402

Professional Review
Disadvantages of Postexposure Cropping ................................................................. 404

Focus on Safety
Does Warming Intravenous Contrast Media Improve Patient Safety? ................. 407

Patient Care
Language Barriers: How Professional Interpreters Can Enhance Patient Care ................. 409

Teaching Techniques
The Effect of Clinical Environments on Graduates’ Confidence ......................................... 413

Writing & Research
Getting to the Heart of the Matter: How to Write an Abstract ......................................... 416
My Perspective
Patient Care in Decline: AIDET As a Tool for Improvement ......................................... 419

Backscatter
What’s Inside? .............................................................................................................. 424

This symbol indicates expanded content.