“Our jobs were much less complicated 30 years ago, and so much more interesting now.”

Diti Katona, p. 28
"Today, an art director is a typesetter, colour separator, designer and garbage collector. They're everything."

GEORGES HARCOURT, P. 96

Part Two Features

FEATURE
16 Adapt or Die
Times, they are a-changin'

ILLUSTRATION
48 Anatomy Studies
The creative artist, 1986–2015
by Raymond Biesinger

ARCHIVE
51 Glory Days
Award winners with impact

SPECIAL INSERT
67 30 Years, 158 Covers
Applied Arts, cover to cover

CONVERSATION
88 Keep Going
Career counsel from Rethink
CD Chris Staples

EVOLUTION
92 Put Down the Knife
Desktop publishing wasn't always so easy
by Alison Garwood-Jones

GALLERY
98 The Future is Here
Young Bloods, then and now

Conversation
Rethink's Chris Staples