Learning English? Teaching English? Looking for books?

Your search is over...

eflbooks.co.uk

Over 22,000 ELT publications listed and available for online purchase
• Multiple search options by title/author/publisher/year of publication.
• Browse across more than 240 categories.
The easy way to order

Cambridge International Book Centre
42 Hills Road, CAMBRIDGE CB2 1LA United Kingdom
P. +44 1223 365400
F. +44 1223 312607
cibc@eflbooks.co.uk

eflbooks.co.uk

Contents

Editorial
3 A note from the editor

Reading and Writing
4 A discussion-based approach to reading comprehension
Rachel Gonneekee suggests a more communicative way of teaching reading skills.

5 From reluctant writer to careful craftsman
Anna Michalefi suggests a deconstruct-reconstruct approach to journal writing.

11 Writing as a class activity
Adrian Doff suggests we could broaden the scope of the writing activities we do in class.

16 Generating motivation in writing lessons
Sharmas Selma suggests ways of motivating learners both in and through writing.

18 Hedging in language
Alto Ross and Catherine Bell look at an important skill in academic writing.

23 CALL-MALL Integration in the writing classroom: smartphone applications and corrective feedback
Andrew Polard discusses a dynamic use of technology to help learners write in the EAP classrooms.

28 Integrating reading and writing skills for EAP
Kat Robb suggests ways of improving students’ academic literacy.

30 Developing academic writing skills through forum discussions
Graeme Neilson describes how using online discussions can help learners improve writing skills.

34 Getting the creative juices flowing
Gareth Davies argues that writing is a good way to revise language and stretch students.

38 How low can you go?
Andrew Santos confesses that writing for Starter level is harder than it looks.

40 Using news creatively to teach vocabulary
Mohamed Stress describes using authentic materials to help students improve their vocabulary.

42 Building empathy toward migrants via poetry
Daniel Forne describes using poetry to help students understand better why people sometimes have to leave their homeland.

Vocabulary
44 Vocabulary we shouldn’t overlook: everyday words with technical meanings
Averil Coxhead discusses some important aspects of technical vocabulary.

Professional development
46 Language MOOCs: what teachers need to know
Ngo Reinetz reviews recent developments in (massive) online and open learning and considers how teachers can draw on them as a resource.

Speaking
49 Teaching critical thinking through debate
Davitt Brier describes how teaching thinking and language skills together can prove very useful for learners.

51 The teacher’s loom: weaving stories into teacher training
Rose Aylott suggests some ways for using stories in training.

Pronunciation
53 Grammar without pron ... is like food without taste (Part 2)
Askan Undeloff follows up his first article with some activities for the classroom.

Professional development
57 Transitioning from General English to ESP
Robert McClarty describes some of the challenges of teaching ESP.

Practical ideas
59 Using Quizlet to engage teens
Pete Clements looks at using digital flashcards.

62 A gold mine of Information
Ben Dobbs discusses ‘gold’ in Business English and teaching idioms.

65 Intercultural awareness
Richard P. Gabrielelli suggests an important activity in Business English.

EAP
67 Using captioned videos in the language classroom
Thu H. Tran explains why combining words, sounds and visuals helps adult language learners.

71 Using discourse analysis to enhance in-session students’ reading and writing skills
Mark Lawrence illustrates the techniques used in an in-sessional mechanical engineering class to improve both reading and writing skills.

76 Teaching EFL in South Korea and China: similarities and differences
Chris Redmond compares two regular EFL destinations.

Reviews
79 Reviews
Roger Gower

A book I’ve used
84 Truth in blessings, lies in dangers
Ann Hargreaves

85 EtPedia Business English
Nata Nermaska

82 Cerebral Output
Sanjeev Thompson

Background books
83 Supporting Learners with Dyslexia in the ELT Classroom
Terris Edwards

84 What’s your Teaching Identity?
Wayne Rimmer

86 The Non-Native Teacher
Roger Swannard

87 Summary of books reviewed

88 What’s new

www.modernenglishteacher.com